

THE LANCASTER DOWNTOWN DIFFERENCE

Your FREE online guide to Lancaster's Urban Lifestyle

Volume 107, July 2009

The Demuth Museum presents

“Demuth's Destinations”

Demuth's Destinations will explore the artist's travels in the United States and abroad in relation to his ground breaking Modernist art. Following his study at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts in Philadelphia, Charles Demuth (1883-1935) made his permanent residence and studio in his family home in Lancaster, creating the vast majority of his art there. Yet the artist led a peripatetic lifestyle, traveling regularly to Philadelphia, New York and Provincetown. Demuth also made several trips to Europe throughout his life, including stays in Paris, London and Berlin. This exhibition of works from the Museum's permanent collection of Demuth's art will examine the relationship between Demuth's travels to these distinct cosmopolitan centers and his artwork. While his travels informed his art, Demuth did not typically create artworks while away from Lancaster. Rather, he participated in an international community of avant-garde artists, writers and intellectuals. He took in the work of his European and American contemporaries and exhibited his own art in a variety of venues. Demuth's local destinations will also be examined in the exhibition which will be accompanied by a walking tour guide and map to sites and structures in Lancaster that inspired his art. An opening reception will be held on Friday, July 3, 2009 from 5 p.m.–7 p.m. in conjunction with First Friday festivities. Regular Museum Hours: Tuesday – Saturday, 10 a.m.–4 p.m. & Sunday, 1 p.m.–4 p.m. Closed, Saturday, July 4th, for the Independence Day Holiday. 120 E. King St. For more information, please call 717-299-9940 or email info@demuth.org.

Painting Credit: Charles Demuth, Man and Woman on the Beach, Provincetown, 1916, watercolor and graphite on paper, 8 ¼ x 10 ¾ inches. Collection Demuth Museum, Lancaster, PA. © 2009 Demuth Museum

This Month's Events

Through July 19th: The Fulton Theatre Presents: Les Miserables

The Fulton Theatre (12 N. Prince St.) presents: Les Miserables. Based on Victor Hugo's famous novel, the international sensation Les Misérables tells the story of one man striving for a better future and another who can't let go of the past. This performance has proven so popular the run has been extended for an additional week. Don't miss your opportunity to thrill to the electric spectacle that has enthralled millions of theatre-goers around the world, Les Misérables! For ticket information visit www.thefulton.org.

Through July 24th: PCA&D Summer Preview

This summer the Pennsylvania College of Art & Design (204 N. Prince St.) showcases the talents of its underclassmen in the Main Gallery. Work in a variety of media: illustration, painting, printmaking, graphic design, photography, animation, and multi-media. Main Gallery: Monday-Friday 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., open late First Fridays. PCA&D and is handicap accessible. for more information visit www.pcad.edu or call 717-396-7833.

Through Aug 14th: Weekday Planetarium shows at the North Museum

Enjoy Central Pennsylvania's largest planetarium at the North Museum (400 College Ave.) all week long with new and classic planetarium programs throughout the summer. For more information, call (717) 291-3941 or visit www.northmuseum.org for show times and descriptions.

Through Aug. 30th: Long's Park Summer Concert Series

Come to Long's Park (1441 Harrisburg Pike at Rte 30) for the 47th annual Summer Music Series. Bring your picnic basket, blankets and lawn chairs have an evening at the park. Select food vendors will also be on hand offering complete family friendly meals. From Celtic and bluegrass to patriotic, blues, folk and rock, audiences can enjoy free music each Sunday at the Long's Park amphitheater stage. All performances begin 7:30 p.m. For more information and a complete list of performances visit www.longspark.org.

Through Sept. 14th: AirPlay Exhibit at the North Museum

Air may be invisible, but it is all around us, all the time. AirPlay, the newest traveling exhibit to arrive at the North Museum (400 College Ave.), provides the tools to explore the nature of air—how it moves and influences our environment. You'll have the opportunity to paint a wall of fluttering “shimmer disks” with a spray of air, or race balls through different paths to see the effects of turbulence. Make discoveries about how objects behave in an air stream and balance objects on multiple streams of air. For more information, call (717) 291-3941 or visit www.northmuseum.org.

July 1st: Summer Family Film Series Presents Moto X Kids

The Lancaster Recreation Film Commission presents an exciting film series for families all summer long in Buchanan Park (420 S. Broad St.). Moto X Kids is an exciting story about kids protecting their dirt bike track from being destroyed. Wednesday evening at dusk in Buchanan Park. Rain date is the following evening. Call 392-2115 x 6 or visit www.lancasterrec.org for more information.

This Month's Events

July 1st, 8th, 15th, 22nd, & 29th: What's Up Wednesdays @ the North Museum

What's Up Wednesdays at the North Museum (400 College Ave.) - Keep those young minds working over summer vacation! Stop by the North Museum this summer to explore the museum and participate in science demonstrations, games and activities. Set off on a scavenger hunt, challenge your family to mind-bending puzzles or explore the universe in the planetarium. For more information, call (717) 291-3941 or visit www.northmuseum.org.

July 1st – July 25: Summer Invitational Exhibition

Heitmann Atelier & Gallery (104 W. Chestnut St. 2nd Floor) is pleased to announce the opening of a new group exhibition. After a substantial deliberation process, fourteen incredibly diverse and talented artists were selected to be included in the first Summer Invitational Exhibition at Heitmann Atelier & Gallery. The two month long exhibition features a selection of new work by local and regional artists. While each come from a similar geographic location, each have developed a unique voice through the work they produce. An opening reception is on First Friday, from 5 p.m. – 9 p.m., refreshments will be served. For more information about this exhibition visit www.heitmannateliergallery.com.

July 2nd: Dinner and a Movie Presents Young Frankenstein (PG)

Every Thursday night throughout July, and August, a movie will be shown in Binns Park (100 Block of N. Queen St.) at 9 p.m. First Thursday don't miss Mel Brooks's comedy classic Young Frankenstein. The movies are free and open to the public. Several downtown restaurants are offering special discounts on Thursday nights. The Prince St. Garage is also offering a discount on parking. More details and coupons can be found in the Dinner and a Movie brochure or at www.lancastercityevents.com or call the Mayor's Office of Special Events at 717-291-4758. Sponsored by Capital Blue Cross.

July 2nd, 9th, 16th, 23rd, & 30th: Read, Touch & Discover at the North Museum

Read, Touch & Discover at the North Museum (400 College Ave.). Using a different book each week, Read, Touch, & Discover encourages young children to explore their world. We'll experiment with air to find out how it affects you and your environment. Hang on to your hat – it'll be a wild and windy time! 10:30 a.m. For more information, call (717) 291-3941 or visit www.northmuseum.org.

July 3rd: First Friday

First Fridays are a great time to experience Downtown Lancaster! Join the thousands who enjoy the evening's artistic energy. Over 90 art venues and shops extend their hours to 9 p.m., some even later! For a complete listing of monthly First Friday activities, visit www.LancasterARTS.com.

July 3rd: First Friday Kirtan

Join First Friday Kirtan at The Yoga Path (428 N. Duke St.) and experience the uplifting energy of Kirtan, a form of group chanting from ancient India, from 7:45 p.m. to 9 p.m. Afterward enjoy a sampling of delicious Ayurvedic vegetarian foods flavored with exotic and healing Indian spices, presented by Spice of Life. The cost is $10 at the door. For more information, call 717-392-3992, email yogapath@voicenet.com, or visit www.yogapathlancaster.com.

July 3rd: Slightly Strange Studios at Annex 24 Artist Reception

Annex 24 (24 W. Walnut St.) presents Slightly Strange Studios' works of creative design, video production and motion VFX for bands, businesses and individuals! A group of creative thinkers bringing bands, galleries, and individuals a new way of thinking about who they are and their image. Jason Pohlig, Eric Tonzola, Tim Schneider & Adam Serrano are Slightly Strange Studios, as well as Photographers Kristine Tardibuono & Eric Casper and mixed media artists Kathy Kramer & Charlie Barton. Artists work will be on display through July 31st. For more information contact vannessareisig@yahoo.com or visit www.annex24gallery.com.

July 5th - Aug. 30th: Demuth's Destinations

This summer the Demuth Museum (120 E. King St.) presents Demuth's Destinations. Follow Charles Demuth's travels in the U.S. and abroad and how these travels influenced his Modernist style. While working primarily from his Lancaster studio, Demuth traveled regularly. An opening reception will be held on July 3rd 5 - 7 p.m. in conjunction with First Friday. For more information, please call 717-299-9940 or email info@demuth.org.

July 5th: Family Science Sunday at the North Museum

Family Science Sunday at the North Museum (400 College Ave.). Mark your calendars for the first Sunday of each month. Family Science Sunday is truly science fun for everyone. This month, you'll be blown away as we play with air, and learn about the physical properties of it. Family Science Sunday are included with Museum admission and sponsored by the Dart Foundation in memory of Brian Hess. 1:00 – 4:00 p.m. For more information, call (717) 291-3941 or visit www.northmuseum.org.

July 5th: Long's Park Summer Music Series presents 257th Army Band, Cannon Brigade & Fireworks

257th Army Band, the "Band of the Nation's Capital," return to celebrate Independence Day. Charlie Smithgall's cannon brigade and spectacular fireworks, too! Performance starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Long's Park Amphitheater (1441 Harrisburg Pike at Rte 30). Free admission. Visit www.longspark.org for more information.

July 6th – 28th: Summer Camps for Kids with the Heritage Center

The Heritage Center of Lancaster County presents innovative and popular summer camps for children during the month of July. July 6th –10th: Rebels, Redcoats and Revolution, for students in grades 4-6, focuses upon the pivotal role that southeastern Pennsylvania played in the American Revolution. Camp hours are 8:30 a.m. – 4 p.m. each day and begins and ends at The Heritage Center's Education Center at the Jasper Yeates House (24 S. Queen St). New this year, the Printer's Apprentice is held every Tuesday at the Heritage Center Museum (5 W. King St.). During the course of the camp, students will learn about printing in the era before computers. Registration for both camps is June 1st. For more information call 717-393-3364.

July 6th: Digital Photography

One-day summer workshop at PCA&D (204 N. Prince St.). A review of digital cameras, and settings such as exposure, balance and focus. Composition, lighting, retouching, printing, etc. will be covered. You must bring your own digital camera. 9am - 4p.m. $120/person. PCA&D and is handicap accessible. for more information visit www.pcad.edu, Email ce@pcad.edu or call 717-396-7833.

July 7th: Beaded Jewelry: Earrings

Summer workshop at PCA&D (204 N. Prince St.). Learn the basic skills for creating quality beaded earrings. 6 - 9p.m. $30/person. PCA&D and is handicap accessible. for more information visit www.pcad.edu, Email ce@pcad.edu or call 717-396-7833.

For a complete listing of all Downtown events please visit Community Calendar

This Month's Events

July 7 – Aug. 29th: Peter Pan

The story of the little boy who refused to grow up is re-imagined with marionettes at the Hole In The Wall Puppet Theatre (126 N. Water St.). Tuesday, Friday & Saturday at 10 a.m. Tickets $9.00. For reservations call 717-394-8398 or visit www.holeinthewallpuppets.com for more information.

July 8th: Summer Family Film Series Presents Surf's Up

The Lancaster Recreation Commission presents an exciting film series for families all summer long in Buchanan Park Surf's Up is an animated look at the World Surfing Championship of Penguins. Wednesday evening at dusk in Buchanan Park. Rain date is the following evening. Call 392-2115 ext. 6 or visit www.lancasterrec.org for more information.

July 9th: Dinner and a Movie Presents Young @ Heart (PG)

Every Thursday night throughout July, and August, a movie will be shown in Binns Park (100 Block of N. Queen St.) at 9 p.m. Second Thursday see the celebrated documentary about an all senior citizen choir who performs rock songs. The movies are free and open to the public. Several downtown restaurants are offering special discounts on Thursday nights. The Prince St. Garage is also offering a discount on parking. More details and coupons can be found in the Dinner and a Movie brochure or at www.lancastercityevents.com or call the Mayor's Office of Special Events at 717-291-4758. Sponsored by Capital Blue Cross.

July 9th: The Art of Giving Art Auction

Mulberry Art Studios (21 N. Mulberry St.) hosts The Art of Giving Art Auction to benefit HOPE International, helping individuals and families escape poverty through financial services, www.hopinternational.org. Items for sale include paintings, pottery and textiles. Evening will also include hors d'oeuvres, and live music. Art for sale will be up for preview beginning Friday July 3rd. For more information contact Lauren Fischer at (717) 464-3220 ext. 140 or lfischer@hopeinternational.org.

July 11th: Grands are Grand! at the North Museum

Grands are Grand! at the North Museum (400 College Ave.). The monthly event provides grandparents and their grandchildren ages 3-5 the opportunity to work together and explore the world around them using stories, touchable specimens and craft activities. This month, we'll meet Sneakers the Seaside Cat, written by Margaret Wise Brown, and learn about the many different types of animals that live close to the ocean shores. Grands are Grand! is from 10:30 p.m. – 11:30 a.m. For more information or to register, call 291-4371 or visit www.northmuseum.org.

July 11th: Cosmic Mike's North Stars Open House at the North Museum

Cosmic Mike's North Stars Open House at the North Museum (400 College Ave). Join the club that's out of this world! Kids ages 8 to 12 are invited to an open house to learn more about Cosmic Mike's North Stars, the North Museum's youth astronomy club. You'll have an opportunity to meet some of the Museum staff and club members and participate in club activities for the day. 9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. Please RSVP by July 3rd to cosmicmike@northmuseum.org or 291-4315.

July 12th: Long's Park Summer Music Series present Fraser & Haas with Bruce Molsky

Enjoy Scotland's premier fiddle ambassador Alasdair Fraser, California cello prodigy Natalie Haas and Appalachian fiddler/ Grammy-nominee Bruce Molsky all on one stage. Performance starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Long's Park Amphitheater (1441 Harrisburg Pike at Rte 30). Free admission. Visit www.longspark.org for more information.

July 13th: Preview Meeting for North Museum Ramble to the Galapagos Islands

The North Museum's (40 College Ave.) next international ramble heads to the Galapagos Islands in March 2010. Snorkel with sea lions, sit with the blue-footed boobies, and crawl with the giant tortoises. Interested? Plan to attend the trip preview meeting on July 13 in the North Museum Kinsey Room. Craig Haberle of AAA Travel will unveil all the details. 7:00 p.m. Contact Jamie Alton at jalton@northmuseum.org or 358-4712 to RSVP or request information.

July 14th: Beaded Jewelry: Necklaces

Summer workshop at PCA&D (204 N. Prince St.) Make unique necklaces to match a special outfit or to give as gifts. Techniques for hand-stringing and attaching a variety of different clasps will be demonstrated. 6 p.m.-9 p.m. $30/person. PCA&D and is handicap accessible. for more information visit www.pcad.edu, Email ce@pcad.edu or call 717-396-7833.

July 15th: Summer Family Film Series Presents Most Extreme Primate

The Lancaster Recreation Commission presents an exciting film series for families all summer long in Buchanan Park (420 S. Broad St.). Most Extreme Primate tells the story of a snow boarding Chimp in this family friendly comedy. Wednesday evening at dusk in Buchanan Park. Rain date is the following evening. Call 392-2115 ext. 6 or visit www.lancasterrec.org for more information.

July 16th: Dinner and a Movie Presents PeeWee's Big Adventure (PG)

Every Thursday night throughout July, and August, a movie will be shown in Binns Park (100 Block of N. Queen St.) at 9 p.m. Third Thursday Enjoy PeeWee's Big Adventure, an 80's classic and early film by director Tim Burton. The movies are free and open to the public. Several downtown restaurants are offering special discounts on Thursday nights. The Prince St. Garage is also offering a discount on parking. More details and coupons can be found in the Dinner and a Movie brochure or at www.lancastercityevents.com or call the Mayor's Office of Special Events at 717-291-4758. Sponsored by Capital Blue Cross.

July 17th: WXPN Welcomes Music Fridays!

The third Friday of every month, from 6 p.m.–9 p.m., Downtown Lancaster and WXPN host Music Friday. Performances abound at over 20 public spaces, restaurants and stores throughout Downtown. Performances include belly dancing, a jazz quintet, solo acoustic, rock and Americana groups. Each month brings new performers to Music Friday. For a list of participating merchants, visit www.DowntownLancaster.com.

July 17th: 19th: Gallery 141's Listening Room

Gallery 141 (113 N. Water St.) creates a "listening room" environment each Music Friday for at least two bands from 7 p.m.–9 p.m. Locals bands and some from the Philly area are featured. Check www.Gallery141.Blogspot.com for band listings, myspaces and videos of performances.

July 19th: Long's Park Summer Music Series presents Kathy Mattea

Two-time Grammy winner Kathy Mattea brings her spiritual voice and powerful country/bluegrass sound to Long's Park Summer Music Series. Performance starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Long's Park Amphitheater (1441 Harrisburg Pike at Rte 30). Free admission. Visit www.longspark.org for more information.

This Month's Events

July 22nd: Summer Family Film Series Presents World's Greatest Athlete

The Lancaster Recreation Commission presents an exciting film series for families all summer long in Buchanan Park. A down on his luck coach travels half way around the world to find the World's Greatest Athlete. Wednesday evening at dusk in Buchanan Park. Rain date is the following evening. Call 392-2115 ext. 6 or visit www.lancasterrec.org for more information.

July 23rd: Dinner and a Movie Presents Son of Rambow (PG-13)

Every Thursday night throughout July, and August, a movie will be shown in Binns Park (100 Block of N. Queen St.) at 9 p.m. Forth Thursday watch Son of Rambow, the critically acclaimed story of a group of kids creating their own sequel to Rambo in their backyard. The movies are free and open to the public. Several downtown restaurants are offering special discounts on Thursday nights. The Prince St. Garage is also offering a discount on parking. More details and coupons can be found in the Dinner and a Movie brochure or at www.lancastercityevents.com or call the Mayor's Office of Special Events at 717-291-4758. Sponsored by Capital Blue Cross.

July 24th: Introduction to Adobe Flash

One-day summer workshop at PCA&D (204 N. Prince St.). This workshop will introduce you to the use of animation and interactive environments. Learn how to integrate video, text, audio and graphics into marketing presentations and on the Web. Basic computer skills and familiarity with the Web are required. 9 a.m.-4 p.m. $120/person. PCA&D and is handicap accessible. for more information visit www.pcad.edu, Email ce@pcad.edu or call 717-396-7833.

July 26th: Long's Park Summer Music Series presents Los Lobos

Los Lobos returns to Long's Park bringing their legendary mix of blues, rockabilly, jazz, and Latin. Performance starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Long's Park Amphitheater (1441 Harrisburg Pike at Rte 30). Free admission. Visit www.longspark.org for more information.

July 29th: Summer Family Film Series Presents Air Bud Golden Receiver

The Lancaster Recreation Commission presents an exciting film series for families all summer long in Buchanan Park. Air Bud Golden Receiver takes the fan favorite canine off the basketball court and onto the football field. Wednesday evening at dusk in Buchanan Park. Rain date is the following evening. Call 392-2115 ext. 6 or visit www.lancasterrec.org for more information.

July 30th: Dinner and a Movie Presents Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid (PG)

Every Thursday night throughout July, and August, a movie will be shown in Binns Park (100 Block of N. Queen St.) at 9 p.m. The last Thursday in July features the collaboration of one of the greatest duos in American movies, Paul Newman and Robert Redford team up to play the famous outlaws. The movies are free and open to the public. Several downtown restaurants are offering special discounts on Thursday nights. The Prince St. Garage is also offering a discount on parking. More details and coupons can be found in the Dinner and a Movie brochure or at www.lancastercityevents.com or call the Mayor's Office of Special Events at 717-291-4758. Sponsored by Capital Blue Cross.

July 31st: Portfolio Preparation Workshop

One-day summer workshop at PCA&D (204 N. Prince St.). Perfect for high school students and non-traditional students (adults) considering a college education in the arts. Workshop participants will learn how to visually and verbally present their work to others and select the type of artworks that should be in a portfolio. 9 a.m.-4 p.m. $100/person. PCA&D and is handicap accessible. for more information visit www.pcad.edu, Email ce@pcad.edu or call 717-396-7833.

For a complete listing of all Downtown events please visit Community Calendar

Welcome New Businesses

Lancaster Marriott at Penn Square

25 S. Queen St.
717-239-1600
300 room luxury hotel is now open

Lancaster County Convention Center

3 East Vine St.
866-503-3786

Penn Square Grille

Lancaster Marriott at Penn Square
717-239-1600

Walk In Style Fashion Footwear and Accessories

356 N. Queen St.
717-299-3052

Red Rose Seg Tours

305 N. Queen St.
www.redrosesegtours.com
Guided Segway Tours of Downtown Lancaster

Crush Wine Bar

50 W. Grant St.
Carr's Restaurant opens Lancaster's first Wine Bar in mid-July.

Downtown Highlights Art Attack

Kalargyros Gallery

Kalargyros Gallery (112 W. Orange St.) is a hive of creativity in Downtown Lancaster. Named after co-founder Despina Kalargyros, the gallery regularly features work by a growing number of collaborative members. This month Kalargyros features the work of member artist George Clark. Clark has been a member of the gallery for over a year now, though his career in art spans decades. In addition to Clark's work, Kalargyros Gallery always features samples of work by their members. These additional works include the intricate and delicate small sculptures of Despina Kalargyros, photography by Joshua Schopf, and painting by David Saur. Kalargyros Gallery, 112 W. Orange St., 717-394-3898, www.kalargyrosgallery.com.

Advertise With Us!

For more information contact Cheryl Kieffer at 717-399-7977.

Photo Contest

Win five Downtown Dollars by being the first to identify the location of this issue's Downtown Lancaster Photo Trivia Contest. Congratulations to Melissa Kashner of Lancaster County Magazine and Kathleen Herr of BBT Law Firm for correctly guessing Mulberry Arts Studio as last month's photo! Be the next person to correctly identify this Downtown shop and win! Clue: This Downtown shop shares its name with the brightest star in a well-known constellation and a band fronted by one of Hollywood's biggest stars in the 1990's.

Send your guess to ckieffer@teamlanc.org.

DID You Know?

In 1879 Franklin Winfield Woolworths opened his first successful "five and dime" in Lancaster City.

Have an Event?

Have an Event? Submit to us by the 10th day of each month prior to the publication month. August events are due by July 10th. Submit Events to: publications@goodproductions.us

Have A Photo?

Have A Photo? Submit your favorite photo of Downtown Lancaster for a chance to see it featured in a future issue of The Lancaster Downtown Difference. Submit Photo to: publications@goodproductions.us

Downtown Highlights

Local Appetite

La Dolce Vita

La Dolce Vita (9 N. Duke St.) is a sweet place. This family-owned bakery brings an Italian warmth everyday as if the family of bakers is inviting you into their home. La Dolce Vita blends the local with the European in everything they have to offer, with ingredients (all fresh) imported from local farms, and as far away as Italy. To say the selection at La Dolce Vita is varied is an understatement. If something sweet is what you're after, the bakery has a variety of cookies, pastries, cakes - for breakfast, desserts, or just a snack. If savory is what you're after, everyday they offer an ever-changing array of sandwiches, soups and salads. Also, as the dog days of summer arrive, La Dolce Vita offers gelato. With ingredients imported directly from Italy, is truly one-of-a-kind in Lancaster. La Dolce Vita, 9 N. Duke St., 717-239-5101, www.ladolcevitalancaster.com.

Store Front

The Shoppe Revival

The Shoppe Revival (332 N. Queen St.) has called Lancaster its home since 2005. For the past few months they've also called the 300 Block of North Queen home when they re-opened in their new store-front location. A skate and snowboarding shop, Revival quickly satisfied a niche as the local skate and snowboard culture has grown. Revival is the city's only Downtown dealer for skateboarding/snowboarding shoes, clothes and accessories, as well as a hang-out for anyone into the scene and a sponsor to half-pipe exhibitions and skate and snow competitions throughout the area. In addition they host bus trips to skate parks and ski resorts, demos, and contests. For skateboarders and snowboarders, The Shoppe Revival has put Lancaster City on the map. The Shoppe Revival, 332 N. Queen St., is open Mon. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 9 p.m., Sat. 9 a.m. - 8 p.m. & Sun. 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. 717-431-9671, www.theshopperevival.com or www.myspace.com/shoppevival.

Now & Later

Fenz Restaurant & Late Night

Stepping into Fenz Restaurant (398 Harrisburg Pike), you're stepping into a true late-night hot spot. Fenz is open for dinner and late night dining and is designed exclusively for that experience. Every element is designed to enhance your night, creating an atmosphere that is professional and modern. Fenz brings that precision into their kitchen as well, with an array of creative dishes. However, comfort food lovers need not fear; the menu is also influenced by American family classics, so you'll always have a familiar choice. Like everything else in Fenz each item has a twist, and even the most familiar dish is promised to be a new experience. Fenz Restaurant, 398 Harrisburg Pike, is open Tues. - Sat. opening from 3 p.m., 717-735-6999.

Upcoming Events

Aug. 14th: Clare House Jazz Fest

The Jazz Fest is an annual fund raiser for Clare House Lancaster and is being held this year at the Lancaster County Convention Center (Penn Square). The Jazz Fest will feature musical performances by The Faux Minx, Amaryllis Santiago, and more. Clare House Lancaster serves homeless women and children by providing a temporary home in a caring environment, life skills programs and aftercare support leading to self-sufficiency. Tickets are $50 for dinner and dancing. For more information visit www.clarehouselancaster.org/events.php.

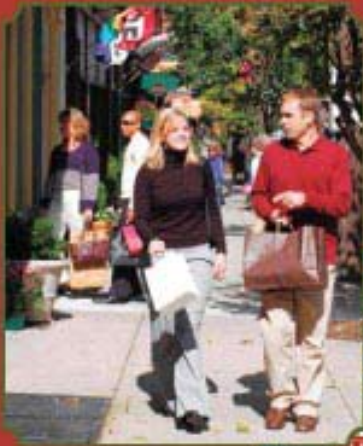

Aug. 16th: Lancaster British Brass Band

The First United Methodist Church (29 E. Walnut St.) presents the Lancaster British Brass Band. Experience the unique sound of a full brass band. Enjoy a varied program of marches, overtures, hymns, jazz and works created just for the brass band. Featured soloists spice up the evening. Concert is free and open to the public. Performance begins at 4:00 p.m. For more information, visit www.lancasterbbb.org.

Aug 22nd: 1st Annual African American Band Event

Organized by Concerned Black Men, Inc. Event features marching bands, drill teams and steppers from a variety of Historical Black College & Universities and area high schools. Colleges and Universities invited include Bowie State, Delaware State, Lincoln University, Morgan State and Choppin State. The event will be held at Clipper Magazine Stadium, (650 N. Prince St.). Tickets are $10/person. For more information contact Jason Thompson, (717) 394-9503 or Byron Folk (717) 399-4998.

For a complete listing of all Downtown events please visit Community Calendar

Downtown Dollars are still available

Downtown Dollars make great gifts and benefit Downtown Lancaster retailers. The dollars come in denominations of five and ten dollars and can be purchased at the Downtown Investment District office, 44 North Queen Street, in the Central Market Mall. For more information contact Cheryl Kieffer at 717-399-7977.

